REMORSE CAUSES DEATH.

Not since the raid against a number of speakeasies at Milford Del., some three weeks ago, has that town been thrown into such a state of excitement as it was at an early hour yesterday morning, when it was ascertained that Mrs. Della Cirwithian, the wife of William Cirwithian, a prominent lime and coal dealer of that town, had committed suicide on the front porch of her husband's home shortly after 3 o'clock that morning. That the act was due to remorse and disgrace is evidenced from the fact that at a late hour Monday night her husband, returning to his home, found a young man of the town, Frederick Windsor, in the house with his wife. Cirwithian at once gave chase to Windsor, shooting at him with a revolver several times apparently without effect. Returning to the house he remonstrated with his wife as to her conduct, and advised her to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMichael, of the same town. He accompanied her to the home of her parents and returned to his own home. Shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday morning he was awakened by the report from a revolver and upon going down stairs saw the lifeless body of his wife prostrate on the floor of the porch. He carried her into the house and summoned a physician, but life was extinct.

BLEW THEIR PASTOR UP.

Having failed with every other means of making their pastor resign, negro members of the Good Hope Baptist Church at Houston, Tex., Monday night tried the efficacy of two dynamite bomb, one placed beneath the pulpit and the other in the collection plate, as it was being passed around. The one beneath the pulpit exploded and Rev. Fred Morgan, who sat therein, was severely cut about the face and head. The other was hurled through a window before it exploded. A general exodus followed in which several negro children were trampled upon and hurt.

More than a year ago the home of the pastor, Rev. C. T. Sykes, was burned to the ground, and at the same time he received threatening letters. About a month ago his buggy was saturated with kerosene and fired. A demand on him to resign was answered with an emphatic negative and he is said to have gone armed to protect himself.

GIRLS IN FIRE PANIC.

Seventy-five girls and 100 men working on the three upper floors of a five-story Broadway, New York factory building were thrown into a panic late yesterday, when a fire was discovered on one of the lower floors. There were several explosions of benzine, and great clouds of black smoke filled the stairways and halls.

In the attempt to escape from the building the stairway became clogged with men and girls until progress was entirely shut off. Several policeman who had rushed in from the street saw the danger and began to drag the men and women from the jam as fast as they could.

This started the crowd moving again, and the frightened employes rushed out of the building pellmell. There were a number of narrow escapes.

WOMAN FATALLY SHOT.

Death in a horrible form came to Mrs. Ida Simpler, the 21-year-old wife of Henry Simpler, a farmer living in Dutch Neck, near Leipsic, in Kent county, Del., at an early hour yesterday morning. Mr. Simpler, with his gun under his arm left the house. His wife playfully ran after him, telling him she was going to take it away from him. As she ran toward her husband, striking the gun, the trigger caught in his coat sleeve and the gun was discharged, the contents lodging in Mrs. Simpler's knee, shattering the leg from the knee down. The husband, frantic with grief, called to the neighbors, and with their assistance carried his wife to the house and a physician was summoned. So serious was her condition that she was ordered to a hospital, but died shortly after being admitted.

We Lead--Others Follow

There are few, if any, of the people who do not want the best goods for the least money. Taking this statement for a fact and believing it to be true—a further truth presents itself, that of ability to pay high prices for the best articles. If the pocket will not stand the strain for liquors which range from $4 to $8 per gallon, a few lots can be mentioned from $2 to $2.60. We do no claim that this whisky equals the other, but we are confident of the fact that it is the best in the city for the money. Try a gallon and be convinced that we represent nothing we cannot execute.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE — SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS — AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 30, 1908.

MR. W. J. BRYAN has addressed another open letter to President Roosevelt in which he arraigns the executive, Judge Taft and the republican administration in a manner hard to be answered. The letter is in reply to that of the president which appeared in last Sunday's papers. Mr. Bryan says: "I have lived in vain if Mr. Roosevelt's accusations have lost me a single friend." Mr. Bryan points to his record, and declares that it is a sufficient answer to the insinuations of the chief executive that he is in sympathy with or controlled by the trusts. Reverting to the charges against Governor Haskell, Mr. Bryan says that the president, in response to his request, did not deign to suggest a tribunal which could determine those charges, but instead proceeded to pass judgment upon him, and he informs the president that the occupant of that high office cannot deny to the humblest citizen the right to protect his reputation and vindicate his name in the courts. Taking up the president's assertion that certain trust magnates fearing prosecution under Mr. Taft will support the democratic candidate, Mr. Bryan charges that the president worded his statement in such a way as to demand the support of all the trust magnates "and yet put it on the ground that they are supporting your party for patriotic reasons, rather than for the promotion of selfish interest." Such an argument Mr. Bryan contends is ingenious, but not sound. In proof of the fact that he would not be controlled by the trusts Mr. Bryan says that if elected he will enforce the anti-trust laws "not spasmodically and intermittently, but persistently and consistently." Mr. Bryan in dealing with the democratic campaign fund of 1896, as compared with the republican campaign fund of 1904, charges that the president pays "more attention to the mote than to the beam" and asserts that in 1904 the republicans used in one state alone a fund almost as large as the entire sum the democratic party had in its control.

THE bankers of the country, or rather the American Banking Association, or a section of it, discussed in Denver on Monday the guaranty of deposit plan of the democratic platform, and the postal savings bank idea which is advocated by the republican party. The bankers, like the lawyers and the doctors, do not always agree. The sentiment against postal savings banks was almost unanimous. Former Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, offered a resolution against the guaranty plan which was adopted after a heated debate. A substitute offered by Mr. C. R. Breckenridge, postponing the consideration of the question, was voted down by a vote of 99 to 32. No surprise in this outcome, Governor Herrick is a republican of the ultra kind, and Mr. Breckenridge a southern democrat, and it adds additional evidence to that already at hand that republican party supremacy in this country, and their reliance as to future control is upon the banks and trusts. The republicans have no intention of organizing postal savings banks, and the bankers know it, but influenced as they are by selfish motives they are now trying to use as a scarecrow the guaranty deposit plan as a reason for the people to vote for Taft. If those who place their money in banks can be deluded into the belief that the bank or banker is doing them some great favor in receiving it, or that an additional safeguard is not throw around such deposit by a security in the way of a guaranty, or the banks do not use this very money to carry on their banking business, then indeed they show an indifference to things which much concern them, and they cannot complain that banks make banking laws for the people, instead of the people making laws to be observed by the banks.

THE democratic rally at the Opera House last night was a genuine manifestation of the patriotism of old Alexandria and a refutation of the oft-repeated assertion that lethargy exists in the party. Mr. Bryan carried the city by a large majority in 1896, and the enthusiasm last night showed he has lost no ground here. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club of Alexandria. Mr. Samuel G. Brent, the president of the organization, presided, and his remarks after having called the meeting to order were well conceived and well delivered. The speeches Mr. Samuel Kelley, elector-at-large of Virginia, from Richmond, and Capt. R. G. Parks, of Page county, were spirited, interesting and instructive. These gentlemen have made the political conditions of the country a close study, and they ably portrayed the injustice of the present tariff laws and the operations of the trusts which have been allowed to fatten upon the great mass of the people by republican administrations.

THE New York Tribune admits that the political rioting in Cuba, "is at least as much a reproach to intriguing Americans as to the Cubans themselves." And more so. The annexationists are at work there "for what there is in it" for themselves while others who are benefitted thereby want the American troops to remain there.

From Washington.

Washington, Sept. 30.

The question of whether President Roosevelt will take the stump was the all-prevading subject of discussion at the White House today. A report that the president is holding in abeyance his decision on an invitation tendered him to attend the Trans-Mississippi congress in San Francisco, October 6, until he can decide whether to take the field for the republican cause, has given an increased interest to the question. Advisers who have talked with the president today say they find but little basis for the report. They declare that the president has talked freely with them as to the stumping proposition, but that he says he has reached no determination. A leading government official who has just come in from the west conveyed the information to the president that the demand that he take the stump is rapidly growing west of the Mississippi.

President Roosevelt will make no reply to Mr. Bryan's open letter of today. The only announcement to be made at the White House regarding the matter was this: "Secretary Loeb states that the president feels that inasmuch as Mr. Bryan's letter is simply an attack upon him personally, there is no reason why he should answer it."

Reports of three department army commanders just received at the war department agree upon the injury being done the army by the detachment of a large number of officers from their regular commands. General Barry states that of 77 captains in seven regiments of infantry and cavalry in his department, 25 are permanently absent, and there are 7 vacancies. He declares that the presence of the captains is necessary for the best discipline. General Pot s also points out similar conditions in his department.

The yellow fever quarantine against Havana and all other Cuban ports except those in Oriente province, in which Santiago is situated, was lifted today.

At the Tuberculosis Congress today addresses were made by Doctors Sachs, Trudeau, Miller, Floyd, La Motte, Blair, Mohler and Hess.

Beginning tomorrow, letters to England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales will need only a two cent postage stamp, instead of a five cent one, to ensure delivery at their destination. This reduction in rates has been agreed upon between the two governments as the best means of promoting commercial and friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain. At present the new rate of postage will apply only to the British Isles, but eventually it may be extended so as to include all the British colonial possessions as well. If the result of the new move sustains all that is hoped for it, it is quite certain that before long Germany, France and Italy will be asking for a similar arrangement with regard to letter mail to those countries: Until October 1st, 1907, just one year ago, the rate on letters to England was five cents for very half ounce. On that date by agreement of the postal union, the rate was made five cents for a whole ounce. Now this has been still further reduced by more than a half, and it will, hereafter, be possible to send a letter weighing an ounce for only two cents.

F. E. McMillin, chief postoffice inspector, has received a telegram announcing the murder of Postoffice Inspector Charles Fitzgerald, at Clinton, Miss., while in the discharge of his duties. Inspector Fitzgerald, who was stationed at Jackson, Miss., went from that place to investigate the Clinton postoffice. After checking up, he found that the accounts were several hundred dollars short. As he was proceeding to the railroad station yesterday to return to Jackson, to make his report, he was met by W. A. Sorsby, the deputy postmaster at Clinton, and the son-in-law of Mrs. Cabiness, the postmaster. Sorsby pulled a gun and shot Fitzgerald, so that he died a short time later. This is the first case of the killing of a postoffice inspector while on duty. The department will take steps to bring the slayer to immediate justice.

Tuesday night frost formed in the Ohio valley, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia, western North Carolina, and extreme northeastern Alabama.

It was authoritatively announced at the White House today that President Roosevelt would not attend the trans-Mississippi congress in San Francisco on October 6. This statement grew out of an inquiry whether the president had any intention of making the acceptance of an invitation to be present the basis for a decision to take the stump.

Governor General Smith, of the Philippines, reported to the Bureau of Insular Affairs today that since his last report 33 new cases of cholera had developed.

Capt. Hugh LaF. Applewhite, of the Coast Artillery, was ordered by the President to be placed on a retired list today. Capt. Applewhite was found incapacitated for active service on account of physical disability. He was born in Mississippi in 1874.

Archbishop Kelley, of Australia, saw the President today. He is en route to Boston on his way home.

Before being taken to Richmond yesterday where he will be electrocuted October 13 on the charge of criminal assault, Henry Smith, of Norfolk, made a partial confession and exonerated "Brack" King, who had been held on charges of being implicated in the case. King is now awaiting trial. The confession was entirely voluntary and it will probably result in King's acquittal when he is again arraigned in court.

Dr. W. W. Evans, a former well-known dentist of Washington, purchased yesterday the Purcellville canning factory building, grounds and railway switches at Hamilton. The purchase price was $6,000. This building was erected two or three years ago at a cost of over $10,000. The canning establishment closed its operations at the end of the season last year and recently disposed of its machinery at a sacrifice. It is stated that Dr. Evans will use the building for commercial operations. Dr. Evans recently came into possession of a fortune from the estate of his uncle, Dr. John Evans, a noted scientist of France.

The state of Virginia yesterday secured writs of error in the Court of Appeals in two cases which had been decided adversely to the commonwealth. The first is a liquor case which comes up from Prince William county, and which involves the question of the sale of malt beverages in that county under the licenses granted the manufacturers of the same. The second case was that of an erroneous assessment of land in the county of Brunswick, being the case of the commonwealth against the Camp Manufacturing Company et al. The case involves the assessment of timber lands in the county, and was decided in the Circuit Court against the state.

The posting Monday night of both written and printed notices on the plantations of prominent Caswell county, tobacco growers, who are not members of the Protective Association, threatening violence if they do not pool their tobacco, has caused considerable alarm in that section, though many are inclined to ridicule the placards as the work of some practical joker. The notices were posted over a territory covering eight or ten miles, and one of them reads: "Pool your tobacco or you will smell fire." Indicating that methods similar to the night outrages in Kentucky will be resorted to.

Today's Telegraphic News

After Cannon's Scalp.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—When the regular business sessions of the Rock River Methodist conference began today, plans were laid for continuing the fight to oust "Uncle Joe" Cannon, not only from the speakership of the House but also from his seat in Congress. Simultaneously Rev. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the American Anti-Saloon League, was sent to Cannon's district to carry on the war there. Rev. Baker aroused the conference to a high pitch of enthusiasm with a speech during which he denounced Speaker Cannon as "the greatest barrier to moral advancement in the country." Three hundred methodist ministers shouted assent.

After Anarchists.

Budapest, Sept. 30.—Police authorities are scouring the city today in an effort to arrest well-known anarchists who are suspected of being behind a plot to assassinate King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain on their visit to the Hungarian capital. The police broke up a meeting of anarchists last night and arrested 25 of the participants. All were released today except the three leaders. The others will be kept under surveillance until the royal visit is completed.

The Bankers.

Denver, Col., Sept. 20.—Today marked the opening of the regular session of the convention of the American Bankers' Association. Governor Buchtell and Mayor Speer delivered addresses of welcome. The sessions were devoted to addresses by prominent bankers and political economists, and to a discussion of various financial topics. Col. J. D. Powers, president of the association, in his opening address denounced the bank guaranty plan as dangerous.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 30.—The gains made at the opening were fairly well maintained in the first hour, but business was small in volume and prices after the first few minutes were narrow. The general market continued in a drifting manner, selling appearing at intervals, causing a downward movement and leaving prices just about unchanged from yesterday's closing.

Hughes and Trusts.

New York, Sept. 30.—That the alleged intimacy of Governor Hughes with trusts and trust directors is to be the slogan of the democrats in the coming state campaign was indicated today when State Chairman Wm. J. Connors took as the text for a phillipic the campaign contributions made by rich men in the last Hughes fight. Consulting the lists filed with the secretary of state by the Hughes managers after the campaign, he drew attention to the following contributions: Clarence Mackay, $2,000; J. P. Morgan, $20,000; Morton Trust Company, $20,000; John D. Rockefeller, jr., $5,000; Andrew Carnegie, $5,000; Charles M. Schwab, $2,000; W. K. Vanderbilt, $1,000; Chauncey M. Depew, $2,500; John W. Gates, $2,500; Frank Munsey, $2,500; Kuhn, Loeb & Co., $2,500; William Nelson Cromwell, $1,000, and others bringing the total up to $83,923.

"I should like to have Governor Hughes answer whether these contributions have or have not influenced his actions," said Connors.

Governor Hughes' appointment of the public utilities commission is also to be attacked.

"It has cost the people $2,000,000," says Connors. "There has been no return to the people from the investment. It is up to Governor Hughes to explain."

The Coffers of the Two Parties.

New York, Sept. 30.—Confidence on the part of the treasurers of the two old line parties was the tone of statements received today relative to the financial condition of the democratic and republican campaigns.

Chairman Hitchcock, of the republican national committee, goes so far as to say the "situation is embarrassing, to say the least," while the treasurer of the same national committee is quoted as remarking, "Don't let the multitude worry, we have enough money both for immediate and future purposes."

At the Hoffman House, democratic national headquarters, Chairman Mack declared in a pessimistic tone: "We need money; the situation is fast becoming serious; just where we stand today I can't say. However, we are better off than our republican neighbors."

In the new quarters of National Treasurer Ridder a more cheerful note is sounded. Ridder asserts: "Our bank balances might be larger, yet democracy can rest assured that the war chests of the party are on lines sufficient to allow us to show a balance on November 3."

Distress in India.

Bombay, Sept. 30.—Thousands are today on the verge of starvation in the flood devastated region of Haidarabad and Deccan owing to the difficulty of distributing relief.

The inevitable outbreak of fever has followed the torrential rains, and between disease and starvation the deaths are likely to outnumber the drownings.

As the waters of the Musi recede, corpses are revealed in piles. In order to prevent a pestilence, the rescuers will have to bury the bodies and clean up the debris before attending to the wants of the survivors. The dead are being buried in trenches with no attempt made at identification.

The flood started from a cloudburst Saturday that sent a wall of water down the Musi valley with such rapidity that the people had no time for flight.

There are few casualities among the Europeans as they live for the most part on the elevations. The deaths will total between 3,000 and 4,000.

To Invade New York.

New York, Sept. 30.—Determined to make a desperate effort to put New York in the democratic column in November, National Chairman Mack today announced that William J. Bryan, John W. Kern, Senator Gore, of Oklahoma; Senator Bacon, of Georgia; Senator Daniel, of Virginia, and Senator Rayner, of Maryland, have been "loaned" to the state committee to campaign under its direction throughout October, Delaware, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Connecticut. Mack thinks, will follow the lead of New York, and with that idea the invasion of this state has been planned. Bryan and the other national speakers will speak not only on national topics, but will also bend every energy to campass the defeat of Hughes by Chanler. He itinerary of the proposed state campaign has yet been given out.

Bryan Attacks Roosevelt.

Muscatine, Ia., Sept. 30.—W. J. Bryan in a series of speeches delivered through Iowa today bitterly attacked President Roosevelt for his attitude in the present campaign. Bryan's attack followed closely the lines laid down in his open letter to the president, made public last night. He declared his attempt to "name his own successor" would be resented by the electors of the country, who knew enough to elect the man they want in the White House.

Bryan's reception in the Mississippi river towns today was one of the best he has so far received in the present campaign.

GANG OF OUTLAWS TERRORIZES TOWN.

Commonwealth's Attorney Edmund W. Hubbard and Sheriff L. W. Williams left Avonia yesterday for the purpose of tracking down the Thomas-Zimmerman force of outlaws, who are terrorizing the countryside, and who are believed to be guilty of the shooting of N. W. Gregory, on Saturday night. The outlaws are in hiding in their stronghold between the Piste and James rivers. Their spies are reported traversing every section of the country, ready to warn the desperadoes of any attempt on the part of the citizens to hunt them down. Mrs. Arthur Zimmerman and Miss Burton, who were arrested yesterday afternoon as accessories to the shooting of Gregory, came to Avonia at noon yesterday and were tried before Justice D. L. Pierce. They were dismissed, as there was no evidence adduced to connect them with the crime. Associated with the outlaws are the Zimmerman and Thomas and Sweten families, numbering in all probably a hundred men. All of them are desperate characters and will fight if the posse of citizens comes upon them. Responding to an appeal for aid, Governor Swanson last night telegraphed the following reply:

"Will correspond with authorities if within my power to correct conditions in Buckingham, and will answer all demands within power."

BAD COMPANY.

It would be well for some of the parents in our city to look into the habits and company kept by their children. Youths from 12 to 14 years old, are permitted at will to roam the streets after night falls with boisterous and vulgar utterances, and jeers at peaceful citizens that pass along our highways. Some of these poor unfortunates may have been denied the boon of proper training. A continuance of the evil, will force the authorities to take cognizance thereof and the rapidity in its growth makes it all the more obligatory. Thereby it is hoped to effect a non disturbance to our citizens, and probably prevent an aching heart of some by others, for truly such behavior leads to one of the roads to the prisons of our country. DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

The night was beautiful, the stars and moon bending every effort to laud the occasion of the initial meeting of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin club at the Opera House last night. Early in the evening interested voters were on the streets awaiting the opening of the doors of the building, eager to get a glance at the speakers and hear the democratic side of the vexing problems which confront the American people. The committee in charge of the entertainment of the speakers did their full duty in the afternoon and gave the distinguished Virginians an exhibition of Alexandria hospitality. This committee consisted of Messrs. John A. Marshall, Thomas A. Fisher, Robley D. Brumback, and their labor in this capacity will be an incentive for a return of these speakers at no distant day. When the time arrived for the meeting the officers and many members of the club accompanied the speakers to the platform which had been gaily bedecked with flags and bunting, and in the center of the stage was a portrait of the leader of democracy and the next president of the United States. The hall was crowded, many ladies being in the gallery.

Mr. S. G. Brent, the president of the club, acted as chairman and made a fine impression in a short but well timed speech. He lauded the policies of the democratic party, as promulgated by Mr. Bryan, and paid his respects to the President of the United States, who, he said, had stooped below the dignity of the high office to a degree never dreamed of by any of his predecessors. He closed by urging the voters to rally to the support of the national democratic ticket and at the same time work vigorously for the election of Hon. C. C. Carlin. He then introduced Mr. Samuel Kelly, of Richmond. Mr. Brent's remarks were loudly applauded.

Mr. Kelly stepped to the front as hale and hearty as a youth of sixteen, in no way appearing like the veteran he is in the cause of democracy, he having in years past traveled over the length and breadth of Virginia expounding democratic doctrine. He started out with a comparison of the candidates. He stated that Mr. Taft found it necessary to apologize for the deficiences in the republican platform. He said the republican party was the greatest trust in existence today, without any political principles above the exagencies of the moment. He said there was every reason for good cheer in the democratic ranks and further said the republican party realized that it had a hard fight on its hands. He closed amid much applause and assured the audience that Virginia would roll up its accustomed democratic majority.

Captain Parks, a war horse of democracy, was then introduced and pleasantly referred to Alexandria, and the fact that this was the first time he had spoken in a city, his efforts heretofore having been confined to cross-road and bush meetings. About 40 years ago, the speaker said, he was camped near here, as a Confederate soldier, but it was a little difficult and dangerous to approach closer than Seminary Hill.

Capt. Parks said that the great question of parties and policies was to do something for the individual that he could not do for himself. He referred to the promulgation of the democratic doctrine 130 years ago and said the voter could find it in the declaration of independence. He spoke of the historical happenings which were the result of a democratic administration. The great work done by this party, he said, stood out in letters of living light and it was a party whose course needed no defense. Among other things he said the party had extended suffrage. Capt. Parks said that under democratic rule labor was contented. He also said that the republican party came into power for the purpose of freeing the slaves and said that if given entire control of affairs it would force upon the south such dreaded measures that he would not dare relate. He said the party was a sectional one, and closed with a beautiful tribute to the standard bearers of democracy and the principles for which they stand. He was warmly applauded.

Prof. Carlton Padgett's orchestra enlivened the occasion with good music.

On the platform with the speakers were Mayor Paff, Messrs John A. Marshall, R. D. Brumback, John H. Trimyer, T. A. Fisher, S. L. Monroe, T. L. Risheill, S. G. Brent, R. S. Barrett and E. E. Lawler.

VICIOUS PRACTICE.

In addition to the roller skate nuisance another just as bad has come upon the scene, that of the putty blower. Last night a youth with a pestiferous putty blower stung a gentleman who had an arm full of bundles. He could not drop the articles and the boys ran. A crowd of youngsters gathered near the corner of Prince and St. Asaph streets last night and proceeded to bombard a Chinese laundryman. For a brief period the Celestial thought his place had been invaded by some new species of insect, but finally he discovered the source of his troubles and made a dash for his tormentors. The boys ran toward King street, with the Chinaman in hot pursuit, and when he grabbed a youngster whom he suspected of having been a party to his discomfiture, proceeded to cuff him, and a crowd quickly collected. Mr. Joseph B. Drew and Mr. George W. Pettey, jr., rescued the boys from the irate laundryman and succeeded in saving the latter from an assault at the hands of the crowd.

CARRIER PIGEON.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY RALLY.

For the first time in the history of Alexandria county, a governor of Virginia will appear there tonight to make a public address. Since Alexandria county has been a part of the state of Virginia, not one of its chief executives has ever honored it with a visit when he was billed to appear on the hustings. The distinction of being the first governor of Virginia to make a public speech in this county will belong to Claude A. Swanson. The occasion will be a monster political rally of the Alexandria county democrats in the courthouse. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Bryan and Kern Club, and assisting this organization in welcoming Gov. Swanson will be the Georgetown Bryan and Kern Club and the Alexandria City Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club. Gov. Swanson will not be the only speaker. Senator John W. Daniel and Congressman Charles C. Carlin will be on the platform and will make addresses. Before the meeting opens a big torch-light procession will be held. This will be headed by three brass bands. The streets will be lighted with bonfires. It is expected that at least 1,000 persons will take part in the procession. Tomorrow morning, before the big political rally at the courthouse at night, "Virginia Day" was celebrated at Great Falls, Fairfax county. This day marks the annual gathering of the citizens of Alexandria county, Fairfax county, and Loudoun county. Gov. Swanson, Senator Daniel, and Congressman Carlin were the orators.

DISMISSED WITH AN ADMONITION.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of a youth who had been arrested at the instance of a woman living on Fairfax street, between Franklin and Jefferson. According to the testimony of the complainant, the youth and a companion, whom the police failed to capture, took positions opposite her house at 10:30 o'clock last night with the intention of waylaying a young man who had called upon the plaintiff's daughter. It was alleged that occasionally the defendants would cry out "Are you going to stay all night?" &c. Justice Caton dismissed the accused with an admonition. Such conduct on the part of certain young men living in the southeastern section of the city has for a long time been a source of complaint. It is said that the dogs of Constantinople tear all canines to pieces which unfortunately stray out of their neighborhoods. It seems that some specimens of the genus homo are animated by equally ignoble instincts.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Dave Crockett, charged by Mrs. Minnie Wood with disorderly conduct, was dismissed with an admonition.

James Price, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct at Spring Park station, was fined $5.

S. H. Evans, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Lou Haywood, charged with being drunk in the street, was dismissed with an admonition.

Patrick Buckley and W. H. Ward, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5.

Winnie Robertson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and assault on Josephine Lee, also colored, was fined $5.

EXPECTORATING ON SIDEWALKS.

The ordinance making it a misdemeanor to expectorate on sidewalks is said to be more honored in its breach than in its observance, so much so that ladies are loud in their complaints. At certain corners where men congregate no attention whatever is paid to the law, and the sidewalks are rendered unsightly and insanitary by expectorations. Although the ordinance was passed by the City Council several years ago, but two persons have so far been arrested and fined for disregarding its provisions.

BOYS FINED.

Officers Arrington and Talbot last night arrested Patrick Buckley and W. H. Ward, two youths, charged with disorderly conduct at the Opera House. It was alleged in the Police Court this morning that the accused were guilty of conduct similar to that of some other boys when public meetings are being held in the Opera House. They will not enter and take seats, but amuse themselves by running up and down the steps. Buckley and Ward were fined $5 each.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT.

Mrs. Mary Louisa Hunter, relict of Joseph H. Hunter, died at the residence of her son, Mr. G. W. Hunter, at Occoquan on Monday. The deceased was 85 years old. Many years ago Mrs. Hunter with her husband and children resided on Lee street, near Wilkes. She was a Christian woman, deservedly esteemed by all who knew her.

FOOTBALL GAME.

There will be a game of football between the Alexandria Athletic Club and the Old Dominion Athletic Club at Colross today at 4:30 o'clock. The line up is as follows: L. E., Duffey-Sherman; L. T., Douglas; L. G., Dobson; C., Tomlin; R. G., McKenney; R. T., Kaits; R. E., Green; Q. B., Barrett; L. H., Snowden; R. H., Pitts, and F. B., Rust, Armstrong and Beverly.

NO TRACE OF SON.

A letter from Mr. Frank P. Bowman, of Culpeper, in regard to his son who was supposed to have left this city for Woodstock with Robbins' circus, was received by Chief Goods this morning. Mr. Bowman says he has been to Woodstock and his boy is not there. He is almost distracted with grief for fear he has met with foul play.

THE CITY LOSES.

As anticipated, Judge Harrison today, presiding by designation of the Governor in the Circuit Court for this city, overruled the demurrer in the case of the Washington-Southern Railway Co. vs. the City Council and decided the case in favor of the railway company. The case involves the right of the company to use Henry street for its tracks, which the city sought by injunction proceedings to prevent. City Attorney S. P. Fisher asked for a stay of sixty days in order to file an answer. The company was represented by Col. F. L. Smith.

The decree entered follows:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.

The Washington Southern Railway Co. vs. the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia, and Frederick J. Paff, Mayor, &c. In chancery.

This cause came on to be heard this 30th day of September, 1908, upon the bill of complaint and exhibits filed therewith, and the demurrer of the defendants to said bill of complaint, and the assigned grounds of said demurrer.

Upon consideration whereof and the arguments of counsel being heard, the court, for reasons stated in writing, filed with and made a part of the record, doth adjudge, order and decree that the said demurrer be and the same is hereby over-ruled.

It is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that the defendants are allowed a space of sixty days within which to answer said bill of complaint if they should so desire.

It is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that the injunction heretofore awarded in this cause be and the same is continued in force and operation until the further order of the court in this cause.

THE "SENATE."

The Young Men's Senate met last night and elected officers for the ensuing term. J. W. Monroe having withdrawn as a candidate for president, H. Noel Garner was elected to that office. The following were the others elected: Vice president, Thomas H. Clark; secretary, Joseph Goldsmith; journal clerk, George L. Appich; reading clerk, H. White; financial secretary, Marshall L. Schofield; sergeant-at-arms, Arthur H. Dawson; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Roger I. Pickin; official reporter, J. W. Monroe, and postmaster, J. E. Riner. Samuel M. Lunt was appointed page.

Upon request of the Senate Rev. C. D. Bulla consented to serve as chaplain for the ensuing term.

The officers elected last night will be installed on next Tuesday night.

WATCH RECOVERED.

Mr. Charles Hohenstein reported to the police August 7 that his watch had been stolen from his residence at the upper end of King street. This morning Detectives Vermillion and Barbee of Washington reported to the Alexandria authoritier, that they had recovered the watch and arrested John Miller, colored, who had pawned it in Washington. Miller stated that he bought a pawn ticket for the watch March 13. The watch was not stolen until August 7 and the negro's story is quite "fishy." Officer Roberts went to Washington this morning and secured the prisoner and brought him to this city, where he was locked up.

THE ARMORY CASE.

The hearing of the arguments on the demurrer in the case of F. L. Slaymaker vs. P. J. Murphy et al. has been set by Judge Barley, of the Corporation Court, for hearing next Monday, October 5, at 11 o'clock. This case arises by reason of F. L. Slaymaker, captain of the new A. L. I. military company, enjoining Capt. P. J. Murphy and Lieut. Windsor Demaine, of the old company, from interfering in the use of Armory Hall. Messrs. Norton and Boothe represent the complainant and Mr. S. G. Brent the defendants in the case.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

During the evening matters relating to resolutions now before the committee were informally discussed, and it is understood that this committee will recommend some very needed improvements at the next meeting of Council.

The committee on light met yesterday evening and organized by re-electing Mr. L. E. Uhler chairman. No business of interest was transacted.

KILLED BY BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Williams Reynolds, aged 23, was shot and instantly killed yesterday evening in the public road near Pondsville, Md., by his brother-in-law, Charles Kline. Reynolds, who had been drinking, had driven home from Smithsburg. When near home his buggy broke down, and while he was repairing it Kline came along. He had been hunting and carried a gun. He and Reynolds, at whose house Kline had been living, had not been on good terms for sometime, and he is alleged to have upbraided Reynolds for drinking. A quarrel started, and Reynolds' wife rushed to the scene. Kline is alleged to have taken deliberate aim and fired, the charge entering Reynolds' forehead. He fell on the road and expired. Reynolds' wife was so close that some of the shot entered her face. When Reynolds fell Kline fled, running through the woods in the foothills of South Mountain.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a deathlike look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarroea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
